

INTERNATIONAL

INVITED SESSION SUMMARY

Title of Session:

Systems approaches to advance the transition to net zero

Name, Title and Affiliation of Chair:

Professor Jill MacBryde, University of Strathclyde

Professor Linda Newnes & Susan Lattanzio, University of Bath

Details of Session (including aim and scope):

This session invites papers from researchers who are interested in a systems view of sustainability. There have been a number of recent UKRI calls for research in this domain and whilst we are looking to attract international contributions, this session may be a place to bring together research teams who are funded under the UKRI calls.
